“ My deepest condolences to Al's family. On a whim, I googled his name and West Virginia, hoping to go to his home and visit, on one of my frequent drives north. I was surprised, but at my age (80), not shocked: many of my old friends have passed now, and about 3 years ago, my wife Vivian, did so also. I remember Shirley (were you named after Shirley Jones, one of my favorite 1950's/1960's movie/tv actresses)? And his sons, Dean and John, both of whom I remember from our 1974 farming experience in WV. Years later, Dean was an incredibly helpful young an who helped me to move some very heavy items. One item, a large marble slab, was installed in our home in Conway, MA, as a countertop about 4 years ago. After Vivian passed, I sold our home, and moved to NC to be next door to our daughter. So I'm much closer to Sherman, WV now. If you're (or Dean or John is) ever inclined to contact me' my phone# is 413 626 7064. Again, my condolences, I always considered Al and his boys good friends, and I miss them.
