“ What a sweet human being and I'm sad to learn of Carolyn's passing. Fond memories of her lovely smile and family. So generous and kind. I was coming to Huntington to visit soon and was going to visit the "old neighborhood", hoping to perhaps stop by, but just saw her memorial online and am sorry I hadn't stopped by last year when I was there. Condolences to her loved ones.

“ For My Precious Aunt Carolyn and family, I want to say "Thank You" for loving me and our family. Growing up at your home was like a treat, I looked forward to the weekends like a child looks forward to a sugar plum. I have the sweetest memories of you and what a gentle soul you have. I don't recall ever hearing a cross word come from your lips. You were born with the most gentle soul and a deep driven love to help others. You were selfless and a true example of what one strives to be. I recall all the meals and popcorn you would make for us and watching chiller on the TV late at night and the Ouija board us cousins would play as the train rattled by and you let us entertain ourselves with silly notions that the board worked, bicycle rides to the YMCA, and playing in the neighborhood with all the other kids. Church on Sunday, the playground next door were favorites. I remember you got me a little baby doll for Christmas one year and made clothes for it too. Waking up at your house was the highlight of my childhood. Nobody held a candle to my Aunt Carolyn, and my middle name was partly in honor of your name "Caro-Lyn" was how the story was told to me. Rest in peace Auntie and fly high with my mama, Susan. I can see you and mama now out roaming around looking for new adventures with everyone smiling as you find them. Love, Tanya, Trey, and Cris.

“ Carolyn, my beautiful loving mother was the sweetest and most giving person I’ve ever known. I am so fortunate to have had her in my life. She kept me going through the most devastating years of my life. I held on to her every word during that time. Watching her going through the years of Alzheimer’s was so heartbreaking. We were close. Even in the end she had moments when I believe she knew who we were. Her last birthday my sister Rebecca brought her to my home in Kentucky. She was mesmerized by the trees and the birds. It was a beautiful day and even then her and my dad were hugging and laughing together. They would call each other sweetheart. After she had been hospitalized for a couple of weeks she stopped eating for the nurses. They decided to send her home with hospice care. My sister Rebecca and I drove in to visit with her. We had several days with her. She was so beautiful and smiled and clapped her hands when Rebecca read her the Birthday card she got cause she didn’t think she would make it till her birthday this October. I’m glad she did. Before I left she reached over to my dad and called him honey. It broke my heart. I kissed her on the forehead and held her hand and told her I had to go back home and that I would come back as soon as I could. That was the last time I saw her. I’m so thankful I had those days with her.

“ My mother was my best friend in life. She held my hand when I was a little girl and she held my heart when I was an adult. She never had much, but she would give her shirt off her back to anyone. I took my mom on many vacations with me and her grandson. Wayne. We had so much fun together and made many memories. I remember when we took her, my dad, brother and me and my son to stay in cabin in Tennessee. She wrote a beautiful letter in their diary to appreciate the trip, She appreciated everything you did for her. She had Alzheimer's for about 12 years, but her last birthday was at my sister's house in Jackson Kentucky, and I bought her some new clothes outfits, pajamas and shoes and she hugged me and said you always do this for me , even when she had trouble talking. Right before she passed , she was hospitalized and I called her before she started going bad and I told her I love her and who I was. She always seemed to remember me. She said she loved me back and I told her to eat for nurse and she started to cry and said family. She broke my heart. I knew she wanted to go back home. Then she shut down and stopped eating till we placed her home with hospice. She started to drink and eat little amounts once she got home. I played mamma Mia songs and you light up my life and sing to her and she tried to sing. She smiled and touched my face. She reached over and touched my dad's shoulder and said honey and held his hand. They were married around 63 years and even in the end she never forgot my dad. They were the real deal from start to her death, but a love through eternity. I will miss all my talks on the phone with my mom. I called and checked on my parents every day , and my dad still encouraged her to try to talk, even though she had problems with speech. My mom will be deeply missed by all, especially her family, Love you mommy from daughter , Becky, Rebecca.

“ For my sweet angelic sister Carolyn who I always miss. She’s my wonderful beautiful unselfish, angel, sweet, Great Christian, Never said anything bad about anybody, she loves her animals birds, nature, sewing,
Carolyn Susan and I kept in touch with our family the last three children out of nine moved to Utah. I would go visit all the time I worked for the government and I could always go see my family back east.
I brought them out here several times to Utah we went to Park city stayed overnight and seen John Denver shop the next day had lunch came back to my house and opened up our packages we had so much fun.
Then I would visit Carolyn icouple of weeks to see her and Susan ! We were the threesome. She has three wonderful daughters becky , Jennifer , and son Raymond Lee and her wonderful husband Raymond whom they fell in love when first set eyes on each other. I’ve never seen a love like the One they have ! Very loving family. They love watching movies, we ate ppizza popcorn. N ice cream always
I would go to Carolyn’s and put the CD in her boombox Mamma Mia, ABBA etc. we would dance and sing and have a party.
Carolyn Susan and I would go to antique shopping, restaurants Susan would drive
Or just plain visit at each of their houses talk laugh and discuss memories of our family.
I have more to say but I really miss her and love her dearly, so do my daughters KameeUT And Tiffany CA
Rest in peace my precious sister, I will see you in time not in a hurry lol

♥ Pamela. 🕊️🕊️
