Demion Deshone Hunter, 47 of Huntington, WV lost his battle when the Lord called him home on Tuesday, September 19, 2017. He was a strong warrior who fought cancer valiantly, with not even one complaint. He went through many treatments trying to stay alive to be with his family. Demion was born on November 29, 1969 in Canton, OH; a son of Charles Lackey and Judith Lynn Hunter. He was a Behavioral Rehabilitation Specialist with Prester Center and was an avid fan of the Cleveland Browns. He was preceded in death by his mother, Judith Lynn Hunter. He leaves behind to mourn his loss, his wife, Lisa Ann Hunter; his children, Jasmine Young of Louisville, KY, Lasandra Smith of Columbus, OH and Isaac and Kaylah Hunter at home; 3 grandchildren, Terrence of Louisville, KY and Samiyah and Andre of Columbus, OH. Also surviving are his father, Charles Lackey of Canton, OH; his brothers, Ivan Hunter, Corliss Stargen, Chance Stargen and his sister, Lottie Stargen, all of Canton, OH; his step-father, Ivan Williams, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and so many friends. He had a large, loving family, with his humor, he wanted it noted, "I'm A Branch". The family extends a heartfelt thank you to Dr. Sanjeev Sharma and staff, Dr. Damian Silbermins and staff, the law firm of Farrell, White and Legg PLLC and Hospice of Huntington for all the care and support Demion and his family have received.
