His love for his profession was only exceeded by his love and dedication to his family and friends. Dr. Ibrahim brought joy, fun, and excitement to the hearts of everyone he met and left a deep impression on those who knew him. He experienced his greatest joy as a teacher, coach and counselor. His kindness, love and laughter influenced many young people and students in the community. He was an incredible personality that will be sorely missed by those who considered him a second father, especially Doctors Feras and Salah El-Bash and the entire El-Bash family.
