

Ella Mae Heaberlin

December 25, 1922 - May 22, 2010

Ella Mae Heaberlin, 87 of Huntington, passed away May 22, 2010 at Imogene Dolin Hospice House. Known to most as Mammaw or Granny, she was a retired homemaker and much-adored babysitter who selflessly dedicated her entire life to caring for children. She was predeceased by her husband William Heaberlin, daughter Peggy Mae Thompson, and son Leslie Gartin. She is survived by her beloved daughter, Sue Gooderham (Lloyd Gooderham) and grandchildren Brenda Gooderham Clark (Brian Hanzel) and Crissy Gooderham Callicoat (Rob Holcomb); four grandchildren she raised as her own, Robert Inscoe (Regina Inscoe), Tamara Inscoe Johnson (Thomas Poff), Mona Thompson Catlett, Sonya Thompson Alberts (Buddy Alberts); great-grandchildren Aaron Michael Johnson, Heather Danielle Inscoe, Nathan Mills, Chase Callicoat, Sheena Terry McComas (Ryan McComas), Scott Terry, Brittany Alberts, and Matthew Alberts; two great-grandchildren she helped raise, Ashley Howard and MaKayla Howard; one great-great grandchild, Emilee McComas; and her special friend, Keith Conrad. Funeral Services will be held 11am Wednesday at Ferrell-Chambers Funeral Home. Burial will follow in Bowen Cemetery. Visitation will be Tuesday from 6pm to 8pm at the funeral home.

Tribute Wall

“ Ella Mae Heaberlin

October 08, 2023 at 12:10 PM

“ What a great lady she was.....

Darla Wilson Grant - May 26, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ May God grant you the strength to carry on in these difficult times.

MaKayla remember your D-1 Family is here if you need us!!

D-1 Greyhounds - May 26, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ We are saddened by the loss of Mammaw. I had the pleasure of talking with Mae, in person and over the phone, several times and she always brought a smile to my heart. I know she will be missed greatly by her family, who she loved so much. Our sympathy to

Carter Ann/ Gerald Haney, Sr - May 24, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Our deepest condolences to the family. Mammaw was a great influence on us and many children who were blessed to know her. She will be missed...forever... Love and prayers to you all..

Denise and Clint Howard - May 24, 2010 at 12:00 AM