

Eunice Glaspie

June 29, 1916 - November 7, 2005

EUNICE M. GLASPIE, 89, of Huntington, widow of James E. Glaspie, passed away Monday, Nov. 7, 2005 in Cabell Huntington Hospital. Funeral services will be conducted 10 a.m. Saturday at Ferrell-Chambers Funeral Home, Huntington with Pastor Franklin Murphy Sr. officiating. Entombment will follow in White Chapel Memorial Gardens. Eunice was born June 29, 1916 in Montgomery, Ala., a daughter of the late Clarence and Lucrecia Hosea Franklin. She was a retired nurse from the Mildred Bateman Hospital. She was a member of Calvary Baptist Church for many years where she was a member of the nursing unit. Survivors include three nieces, India (Thomas) McCullough, Charlene (Levi) Martin and Janice Brown-Henry, all of Huntington; four nephews, Russell Brown Jr., of Clementon, N.J., and Fred Brown, Clarence (Lois) Brown, and Charles Brown all of Huntington; special friends Charles and Delores Moody and family. A host of great-nieces, nephews and friends also survive. Friends may call one hour prior to the services at the funeral home. The care and services for Ms. Glaspie are under direction of Ferrell-Chambers Funeral Home, Huntington.

Tribute Wall

“ Eunice Glaspie

October 08, 2023 at 12:10 PM