

Franklin Cass Nicholas

June 10, 1941 - March 5, 2018

Franklin Cass Nicholas, 76 of Huntington, WV passed away Monday, March 5, 2018 at Emogene Dolin Jones Hospice House. He was born on June 10, 1941 to the union of the late Earl Joseph and Sara Jane (Robinson) Nicholas. Franklin graduated in 1959 from Huntington High School where he was a member of the basketball and football teams. After graduation, he enlisted in the United States Army and served as a Medic during the Viet Nam War. Franklin was an avid reader, creative artist, inventor and loved the sciences. He is preceded in death along with his parents, his five siblings: William Clayton Parsons, Samuel Robert Nicholas, Alice JoAnn Nicholas, Jethro Earl Nicholas and Howard Garland Nicholas. He leaves behind to mourn his loss; his sister, Mrs. Martha L. (Nicholas) Edwards of Huntington and brother, John Henry Nicholas of Baton Rouge, LA. Also, surviving is a host of nieces, nephews and cousins. In lieu of flowers please make donations to the American Cancer Society. Funeral services and burial will be held private for family only. Online condolences may be expressed to the family below.

FC18-034

Tribute Wall

“ Franklin Cass Nicholas

October 08, 2023 at 12:10 PM

“ Mary Dawson sent a virtual gift in memory of Franklin Cass Nicholas

Mary Dawson - August 13, 2022 at 09:44 AM

In loving memory of my grandfather Franklin Cass Nicholas.

Mary Dawson - August 13, 2022 at 10:00 AM

“ My condolences.

Diana Newton - March 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM