

Harold Lee Carico

May 17, 1938 - October 23, 2017

Harold L. "Butch" Carico, 79 passed away at his home on October 23, 2017. He was born in Huntington, WV on May 17, 1938. He retired from Inco Alloys in 1993. He spent much of his life volunteering for various organizations. He loved Huntington and helping his community. He was a dedicated volunteer for Hospice and the Good Grief Hospice Kids Camp for 10 years. Dad was a Master Gardner and wrote gardening articles for The Herald Dispatch. He helped with annual refreshes of many local playgrounds and planted flowers throughout Central City. He participated in the Kiwina's Pancake and Shriner's fundraisers. He was an usher for the Marshall Artist Series as well as an avid Marshall football and basketball fan. Dad loved being active and took many golfing and skiing trips with friends. He is survived by his son, Gregory L. Carico of Nashville, TN; his daughter and son in-law, Amber and Eric Roller of Huntington; and one grandson, Zachary Roller. Also, surviving; sister, Carolyn Kay (Jack Wilson) of Cabot, AR; niece, Terri (Wilson) Henderson and nephews, Jack A. Wilson and their families of Little Rock, AR and Ben "Buffalo" Coffman of Covington, KY. He will always remember and embrace his words every text, every call, "Life is Good". At this time, there will not be any services held. Online condolences may be expressed to the family below.

FC17-117

Tribute Wall

“ Harold Lee Carico

October 08, 2023 at 12:10 PM

“ Butch was a fine man. I knew him through Master Gardeners as well as the Keith Albee usher corps. You could always count on him for help when you needed it. He will be missed.

Steve Beckelhimer - November 02, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ Very sorry to hear that your brother passed away. Our prayers are with you and your family in this stressful time. Mike Ansell

Michael Ansell - November 02, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ Greg & Amber, it's hard to find the words to express how heavy my heart is to learn about your Dad. I'm sorry I didn't know he was sick. He will always have a special place in my heart. I sent you both a private message. Love to all!

Teresa Church - October 27, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ I really loved the picture , your lives were just beginning, and all of the sweet memories along the journey, Some of my fondest memories were of the family get together s ,I remember playing basketball with Butch when I was just boy. God Bless Love

Joe Carico II - October 25, 2017 at 12:00 AM

LT

“ Butch was a great guy and a gentleman of high order. he also made everyone happier just being around him . RIP my friend

larry tawney - October 25, 2017 at 12:00 AM

CR

“ I am so sorry to hear of him passing. Butch was my cousin and talked but didn't get to see each other that much. If there is anything I can do just let me know. I remember when my daughter was in elementary school she had to have her tonsils removed a

Connie Roach - October 25, 2017 at 12:00 AM

KW

“ Today, I am remembering the good times with my brother Butch. We had many happy holidays together. We would all come together at our parents' house. Mom would cook wonderful meals and we missed that after she was gone. I watched Butch as he became

Kay (Carico) Wilson - October 25, 2017 at 12:00 AM

BW

“ I am very sorry for your loss.

Betty Withrow - October 24, 2017 at 12:00 AM

DS

“ Greg and Amber, So sorry to hear of your fathers passing. I had not seen him for several years and did not even know he was sick. Your dad was a man of integrity and I loved his sense of humor. Nothing can replace your dad. I remember the family reunion b

David A Willey Sr - October 24, 2017 at 12:00 AM

PH

““Life is Good” That’s Butch. First time I met him he said, “ Ya wanna wrestle?” Too hysterical, but Butch. Be with the angels and rest. Amber and Greg. I love you guys.

Peggy Hensley - October 24, 2017 at 12:00 AM