“ You just FaceTimed me on Voting day from the booth talking about who all these other folks you should vote for lol and I told you if you started with (D) then continue with all the (D) candidates lol and use the papers you got when you walked in and we just laughed!!! I was proud of you exercising your rights!!

We had just did the state fair which you said was your first time and oh boy was that an unforgettable time 😂!!!

I had just given you all my MK purses and you wore the black one everywhere, so happy to have it!!!

It's been a week, and I'm still at a loss for words. You haven't reached out through calls, texts, or posted on social media—I'm just overwhelmed. This feeling is surreal, but please know that you were deeply loved. I will miss the Mek-mek can you do this, how do you do this, or the famous can I borrow this, 🧐👩♀!! I took great pride in you and your growth even through the tough times. I will miss you dearly, and you will always be remembered. You would have been so touched to see how the family came together for you yesterday; their presence at church was truly heartwarming. It still all feels so unreal, but you will never be forgotten. With all my love, always.
