“Sending my love and prayers and pictures of these 2 wreaths that I made. Aunt Jane loved the beauty of creation. This winter wreath showcases some of the beauty we were enjoying when she entered Jesus presence and the chickadee wreath gives us a foretaste of the Spring beauty we can anticipate when family meet in the Spring at the apple tree to spread her ashes.

“ Aunt Jane was the youngest sister of my dad and one of my early childhood memories is of visiting her family in Ohio and swinging on the swing set in their back yard. It looked sooo tall and I was amazed!

Through the years I remember fun times with Aunt Jane, Connie, Paula, and my parents and siblings when visiting our grandma in PA. In the last few years my contact was mostly limited b/c I live overseas. But in the last year I had a meaningful one hour chat with Aunt Jane by phone from my parents' home. May she enjoy being with Jesus and may He comfort those grieving even as He promised.
