

Jeremy Franklin Rhoton

November 1, 1973 - April 21, 2021

Jeremy Franklin Rhoton

Born: November 1, 1973 in Dayton, Ohio, passed into the great mystery the morning of April 21st 2021 in Huntington WV. He was preceded in death by his father: Randy Rhoton, mother: Jackie Clark, grandfather: Ernest Rhoton, grandfather: Eddie Shoun, grandfather: Kelly Buck, grandmother: Marie Buck. He is survived by his grandmother: Barbra Shoun, Aunties Pam and Janice, children: Kaya, Jerica, Irie and Brayden, Brother Jason, sister-in-law: Tiffany, niece: Kylie, nephews: Kaden and Keyaan, cousins: Mark, Jessie and Bryan and too many friends, lovers and acquaintances to list.

Jeremy's passing was due to complications from long term Substance Use Disorder which literally broke his heart. My brother came into this world on fire. He loved sports and being active as a child and excelled in sports and academics despite a terribly challenging home life. The long term trauma of which led him to seek relief in drugs which he could never fully shake. Despite this he loved hard and had a thirst for spiritual knowledge. He really never met a stranger and lived life to it's fullest on his own terms. He was simultaneously charming and aggravating, at times, but never boring. He will be missed beyond measure by so many, especially his family. Wherever you are on your journey brother I hope you find peace and will learn to accept the love that abounds around you. I will always miss you bubby!! I know you're loving being free and exploring the mysteries which have been unveiled to you.

A Memorial service will be conducted 1:00 P.M, Saturday, May 1, 2021 at Ferrell-Chambers Funeral Home, Huntington, WV with Ryan Daugherty officiating. Visitation will be held from 12:00 to 1:00 P.M, Saturday, May 1, 2021 at Ferrell-Chambers Funeral Home. Online condolences may be expressed to the family at Ferrell-ChambersFuneralHome.com.

“ I only just found out yesterday and it hit me like a ton of bricks. I cried so much that I think my husband started questioning my fidelity, LOL. I know that you would find this funny and I can almost hear you laughing. I am so sorry that I was not there for you as much as you were there for me. This is a true testament of how big your heart is because you were there for so many others too. I know that you tried so hard to be the best YOU. I feel very privileged to have encountered your divine presence on this realm my soul brother.

“ Wow! Such honest writings about a man well loved! I can relate to the childhood trauma, as my childhood was full of fear and violence (both at home and at school) and deprivation. Thankfully for me, drugs were not part of my equation, though they were
