Dad, I feel your presence, quite often, still yet. Just want you to know, I will always, remember, how, truly special, your, baby girl, was, to you, and, how special, of, a father, you, were, to me, then, and, now. YOU, I, still explain, to, my, children, the Kenneth Eplion, my father's, genealogy, and his, reasonings, as, a dad. They accepted, your apologies, you surrendered, to them, and, I'm so proud, of you, for that, I love, you too.

You, now have, me, your baby girl, by mom, and Rodney, your, baby boy, by Judy, left, to nature. Out, of, 8 kids, you raised, us, Militia style. I honor YOU! Your favorite personality child, Teresa Lynn Eplion Bowman

Be merciful, unto, me, Lord, for I cry, unto thee, daily Psalms: 86:3
