

Lewis W. Cremeans

March 3, 1931 - September 3, 2006

Lewis W. Cremeans, 75 of Huntington passed away peacefully Sunday in St. Marys Medical Center. Funeral services will be conducted at 7:30pm Wednesday at the Apostolic Life Cathedral with Pastor E.S. Harper officiating. Interment will follow on Thursday at 11:00am at White Chapel Memorial Gardens. Lewis was born March 9, 1931 in Huntington, WV a son of the late George A. and Gracie Alice Villers Cremeans. He was a member of the Armco Steel union and retired after several years of faithful service, and was the owner of Cremeans Contracting. He was preceded in death by his loving wife, Eleanor Rairden Cremeans and a special friend, Shirley Allred. He is survived by four sons, Rev. Lewis Cremeans and his wife Ruth of Laporte, TX., Vernon Cremeans and his wife Elizabeth, Bernard Cremeans and his wife Brenda, and David Cremeans and his wife Helen Rose all of Huntington. Friends may call from 5:30-7:30pm Wednesday at the Apostolic Life Cathedral. The care and services of Mr. Cremeans are under the direction of the Ferrell-Chambers Funeral Home, Huntington.

Tribute Wall

“ Lewis W. Cremeans

---

October 08, 2023 at 12:10 PM

“ *Dear Bernard, Vernon, Francis, and Daivd,
I was so sorry to hear of your dad's death. I know he has been sick for a long time. But that doesn't maske it a lot easier. I am sorry I could not anttend any of the services, But, my mom is in the hospital in colu*

---

Debbie Clary - September 06, 2006 at 12:00 AM