

Lloyd David Lewis

October 12, 1945 - July 6, 2015

Lloyd David Lewis, 69, of Kenova, passed away at his home on Monday, July 6 2015. He was born on October 12, 1945 in Chicago, IL, the son of the late Glenn and Muriel Lewis of Princeton, WV. He was a 1963 graduate of Princeton High and a 1967 Journalism graduate of Marshall University, where he was editor of The Parthenon, and subsequently earned a Master's degree. During his career he worked for United Press International in Charleston, was a long-time reporter/editor with the Herald Dispatch, a public relations representative with Kentucky Power in Ashland and served as long-time manager of News & Community Relations for Chessie System/CSX in Cleveland and Jacksonville. In recent years, he was a teacher locally and also in China. Lloyd was a lifelong rail enthusiast, noted author/photographer and historian (especially on the Virginian Ry.). He published numerous rail books and magazine articles. He was a member of numerous railroad historical societies and was instrumental in the development of the Princeton Railway Museum. His infectious grin and affable manner will be missed. He is survived by his son, Carter D. Lewis (Amber), of Charlotte, NC; his brother, Lowell G. Lewis (Margie) and his nephew, Glenn Lewis, of Greeley, CO. Funeral services will be held at 4:00 P.M. on Friday, July 10, 2015 followed by a reception at First United Methodist Church in Huntington where he was a member. Officiating will be Dr. Mark Connor assisted by lifelong friend, Bob Withers, pastor of Seventh Avenue Baptist Church. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to First UMC. 15-058

Tribute Wall

“ Lloyd David Lewis

October 08, 2023 at 12:10 PM

“ This is a late entry. I was trying to find my old friend, Lloyd, to reconnect. Alas, I found his obituary. I'd like to share some comments. I met Lloyd Lewis as a teacher in Changzhou, China. Lloyd and I worked at adjacent schools. For those of you who kn

Yan Zhu and Mark Bolding - August 11, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ Please accept my condolences to the family of Lloyd David Lewis. Please embrace thid Beautiful promise of God (Isaiah 33:24) and (Psalms 34:18). The Bible promise is indeed comforting, understandably this is still a very Grievouse time. You can read thes

Teri Morgan - July 29, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ So sorry to hear of Lloyd's passing. He will be missed; seeing him in the FUMC Choir every Sunday. He was a member of our Sunday School class and was very thoughtful to send me notes once in a while when I would send out the class prayer requests email.

Anne Weeks - July 09, 2015 at 12:00 AM

LK

“ I worked with Lloyd at CSX in Jacksonville, Florida and kept in touch with him via e-mail after I was transferred to Nashville where I retired in 2004. Lloyd had a great enthusiasm for life and for railroad history, and I greatly will miss our almost dai

Lyle Key - July 09, 2015 at 12:00 AM

SW

“ To Lloyd's entire family, may I offer my condolences. Carter, while I did not meet you, and Lowell, who I remember very well in Princeton in the early 60's, your father was a very special man to me. His enthusiasm for all things was incomparable. He

Stephen Warner - July 09, 2015 at 12:00 AM

MD

“ Lloyd was a close friend from the time he arrived in Cleveland and we worked together for the Chessie System at the Terminal Tower. And then when I was transferred to Jacksonville with CSX in 1987, I lived with Lloyd, until we bought a home and my family

Mark Demaline - July 09, 2015 at 12:00 AM

RP

“ RIP Lloyd. I'll catch you down the road.

Ron Piskor - July 09, 2015 at 12:00 AM

AT

“ It was sad to hear of Lloyd's passing. I enjoyed his good humor and appreciated his scholarly work on the Virginian Railway. I will miss him.

Arthur L. Towson - July 09, 2015 at 12:00 AM

DB

“ I was so sorry to hear about Lloyd passing away last week. I got to know Lloyd when we were both members of the Collis P. Huntington Railroad Historical Society in Huntington, WV back in the 1960s. We both shared a mutual interest in the Virginian Railway

Doug Bess - July 09, 2015 at 12:00 AM

AT

“ We remember Llyod from our NRHS Meetings in Jacksonville. His sholarly reserah on The VGN Railway. His humor at our NRHS meetings while he was with CSX in Jacksonville.

Arthur L. Towson - July 09, 2015 at 12:00 AM

CB

“ I am so sorry and sad to hear of Lloyd's death. We had been friends since elementary school and most recently saw each other at class reunions. We talked often on the phone and he even came to see me in Michigan when Carter was living in Kalamazoo. He was

Carol Weatherford Barr - July 09, 2015 at 12:00 AM

SW

“ To Lloyd's entire family, may I offer my condolences. Carter, while I did not meet you, and Lowell, who I remember very well in Princeton in the early 60's, your father was a very special man to me. His enthusiasm for all things was incomparable. He

Stephen Warner - July 09, 2015 at 12:00 AM

LI

“ Carter,
Much sadness and many condolences on the recent death of your dad. I will always remember his fun personality and love of anything railroad!! Thinking of you at this sad time.
Much love, Linda Brewster

Linda - July 08, 2015 at 12:00 AM

KM

“ We too are saddened by the loss of our friend Lloyd. He was our friend for many years and offered up a very special "toast" at our wedding. Lloyd was a fine railroad historian and story teller. We shared the love of the Virginian Railway as wel

Ken and Beth Miller - July 07, 2015 at 12:00 AM

JS

“ We are extremely saddened to learn of Lloyd's passing. He was our friend for over fifty years and visited with us in our home many times. We shared countless hours in discussion of our beloved Virginian Railway.

To Lowell and Carter and your families we

Jeff & Susan Sanders - July 07, 2015 at 12:00 AM

DT

“ LLOYD, I HAVE A LOT OF GOOD MEMORIES OF YOUR VISITS TO ROANOKE BACK IN THE 60'S ALONG WITH THAT TIME WE RODE TO PARKERSBURG IN THE CABOOSE ON THE B&O WITH BOB WITHERS AND STEVE WARNER. ALSO REMEMBER THE LAST RUN INTO CINCINNATI UNION TERMINAL WITH

DORR TUCKER - July 07, 2015 at 12:00 AM