“ In my sister early years she was an ordained Evangelist Missionary who loved the Lord. She was fiery. She is preceded in death by her mother, Fannie Brown, her father, Robert Brown, and others. That is going to be one grand great reunion!! Somewhere around the throne of God!! I use to love to hear her laugh. She worked many odd jobs to ensure that her young family had everything they needed. She was a very caring and loving person. We were blessed to have her as a sister. One of my fondest memories of my sister was when I would visit her (she knew I liked tuna fish), she would fix me tuna fish sandwiched. She would sit there and take her time and cut up the green peppers and onions so small. I couldn't wait until she finished. It was the best tuna sandwiches I have ever had. I try to mimic that today. But, it's never like hers. She will truly be missed!!
