“ My condolences to your family. I was fortunate to know Marie from her being at West Virginia Quilt. I was always happy to greet Marie and to see what project she was working on. She was my go-to quilt binder and I know she will be missed.

“ I never knew you, I have admired talents from afar. You had a loving and giving heart to all that knew you. You taught your piecing and quilting to thousands I am sure. Our hearts are heavy with grief shared by your family. I honor you by sharing my love of quilting with others.
