

Roger Ford Edwards

August 29, 1945 - September 5, 2022

of Huntington, WV, passed away Monday, September 5, 2022, at the age of Seventy-Seven years, and Seven days. Roger was born August 29, 1945, in Huntington, WV, to the late Verlin J. and Dorothy F. Waddell Edwards.

Following 38 years of service, he retired from the Herald-Dispatch in 2001. A true outdoorsman Roger was always at peace while hunting, fishing, competing in archery tournaments, or swapping stories of all the same. He could also be found on Saturdays cheering on the Thundering Herd and Buckeyes.

Those left to cherish his memory is his loving wife, Sue Ellen Beever Edwards of Huntington, WV; a daughter, Kelli J. Hale of Huntington, WV; a son, Ryan K Edwards (Danielle) of Huntington, WV; a grandson, Derek R. Hale (Kristen) of Medina, OH; a brother Roland E. Edwards (Katherine) of Bellefontaine, OH; and a very dear friend that was considered a brother, Russell L. Tooley of Proctorville, OH.

Roger will be deeply missed by many. There will be no services, per Roger's request. Online condolences maybe expressed to the family at www.ferrell-chambersfuneralhome.com. Those who wish, may make a memorial contribution to the Ohio Conservation Federation, an organization that promotes many of the values that Roger treasured

“ My sincere sympathy to Roger's family. I saw and talked to him about a year ago at our BHS class of '63 (mini) reunion. We were FB friends and distant cousins. My maiden name was 'Edwards.'
May he Rest In Peace.
