“ Willa Mae, a life well lived in the Christian faith: God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, Bible readings, prayer, choral music, grace and family as well as community. We are united in faith and through this faith you have had the ability to bring us through every circumstance of life as partners through your sharing. Goodbye... God has created a place for you... A home filled with loved ones and new friends. We will see you again through this faith.

My condolences to Willa's family, friends and fellow congregants at St. Peter Claver Catholic Church in Huntington, West Virginia as well as Bethlehem Baptist Church in Alexandria, Virginia. As discussed by Reverend Father Shaji Thomas in his heartfelt remarks from the Gospel of John, Chapter 14: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust in me (Jesus Christ)." Amen.

“ What an amazing lady. She always had a smile and hug for me. I never heard her complain about her losses or anything. She and my mom grew up across the street from each other. She will be missed. Such a classy lady.

“ Miles and Michael, my prayer are with you in your time of sorrow. The first time I met Mrs. Willa Mae, I had a chance to taste one of her signature homemade cakes. It was so good I told her she could adopt me.

She had a pleasant personality and God-given talent of never meeting a stranger. I called her sometimes to check in on her, and we would chat for a while. She will be truly missed by many.

“ I am sorry for your loss. Miss Willa Mae was a very sweet lady. I enjoyed working with her on the DHS-HHS reunion committee. We will miss her and her willingness to always help with the reunion. May God's comfort and love strengthen you at this difficult time.

Willa Mae was truly a great friend; more like a sister. Her late daughter was insistent I meet her mother and I understood why. She was truly a GEM. I will surly miss her warmth. Floscelia (Flo) Johnson
